what is to be said on the other side? (Wash. Post, 1/10/68)

On any such subject, the Mr. Macdonald's "Smoke Prohibition Bill, amidst the hubbub of legislation, has great difficulty in finding the attention which it really deserves. The truth is, this smoke nuisance is one of the most common and the most insidious of evils, and it is most dangerous because it is so close to us, and it is so difficult to see. It is a nuisance which attacks them only indirectly. If the pecuniary injury done to inhabitants of great towns by smoke could only be put in the form of a smoke-tax, what unkindness could be more obvious than to tax the smoke? We ought not to view with less hostility, because of its almost unobtrusiveness, a thing which injures the health of our children, if not of people of all ages, disfigures our public buildings, and pollutes the air which we breathe. It is, in effect, a man's degree this spirit of all persons who live under it, and under manufacturing towns has welcome places of residence for the higher class, what is what brings in connection with the subject of this essay, and to the bearing of the subject. In other words, it is particularly injurious to the working population.

What was estimated of nearly £7000, and therefore the "absorption" from the Immigration Fund had, after all, not have been required to balance the account. The deficiency extended no further. But for the £44,000, then, there would be no ground whatever for denying the late Treasurer the credit of having, within a trifle, balanced his account without even touching the £7000 which was voted last year.

But with regard to the charge about this year, it has been rather unfairly pressed against the late Treasurer. Mr. Haast himself now admits that it has been the practice with former Governments to bring forward the estimate of the payments on the bonded debt which are due in London in January and June; and though it may be desirable that a different course should be adopted as early as possible, it was not to be expected that the late Treasurer should have foreseen the necessity of being able to state at that time the amount of a new arrangement. However, the present Treasurer regards the £44,000 as a deficiency which should

Only two vessels have arrived from immigrants, one from Madras, the other from Bombay. These are the first immigrants arrived since the law permitting passengers for five years has been in force. The Chamber of Commerce has expressed uneasiness with regard to the railway works, and the Government do not consider proceed so fast as they thought. A letter has been addressed to the Government, asking for the actual state of the works, and its expectations of completion. As far as the contractors are concerned the works are in progress, and we may say with safety that they are in advance of their time. The Northern line is almost completed, only four miles remain, and were it not for the delay in the arrival of the locomotives, the rails would be laid on the whole line. On the Midland line the works are proceeding actively, but the contractors are in want of capital. Some of the principal works are being far advanced, and this is the case with the contractors as well as three years from its completion.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

London, 26th June, 4 p.m.
The Australian April mails were delivered in London on the 12th and 17th June.

Her Majesty continues in good health, and now appears often in public.

On June 10th the inauguration of the statue of the late Prince Consort took place with great elate.

The Prince and Princess of Wales are everywhere received with unbounded enthusiasm.

On June 24th a banquet was given at Willis' Rooms by Australian gentlemen to the new Governor of Victoria, who, however, could not be present, owing to illness. Notwithstanding his indisposition, he intended leaving in the Suffolk on the 26th June.

The House of Commons declined to discuss the Polish question until Russia has answered distinctly the notes of the three Powers.

Fortnightly postal communication with Australia via Galle still engages public attention, and will likely be carried out in about six months. The P. and O. Company are making the necessary preparations at King George's Sound.

A deputation waited on the Chancellor of the Exchequer on the subject of a mail service via Panama; the answer was, that Government was bound to reduce the public expenditure, but the Australian colonies can have the service, provided they pay the entire cost themselves.

A project of emigration to Queensland and Albertland on a large scale has been organised by the National Colonial Emigration Society; 1175 emigrants have been despatched to Queensland.

Great distress exists in the manufacturing districts.

The grand national celebration of the three-hundredth birthday of Shakespeare is to be held in London, on the 23rd April next, and a statue is to be erected.

The Crown prosecution of the builders of the alleged Confederate gun-boat Alexandria ended in a verdict for the defendants.

AUSTRALIA VERSUS ENGLAND.—The race between Green and Chambers was contested on Tuesday, the 16th June. The course was from Putney bridge to Mordlake. Twenty steamers were loaded with friends and backers of each, and thousands lined the shores, who had gone to Putney by railway. Such a concourse of people was never before assembled on the banks of the Thames to witness a boat race. Betting, for days before, two and three to one against Green. At five minutes past two, Green having won the toss for inside place, a start was effected, and tremendous excitement ensued, as Green led by a clear boat's length. The first mile and a quarter the speed was something wonderful, Green rowing three strokes to Chambers' two; after that distance Chambers gained on and passed Green, and won with perfect ease.

Time, 25 minutes. Green's time, 29 minutes.
Green was seized with spasms during the race; two doctors had to attend on him on reaching the umpire's steamer. He feels confident, had it not been for the sudden attack, he would have won, and has since challenged Chambers to pull in August for £200. Chambers declined to row on the Thames, but is agreeable to contest the race on the Clyde. The race will likely come off.

A great cricket match was played between the United Eleven and All-England, and was won by the former club.

At Ascot races, the gold vase was won by Adventurer; the Derby, by Queen Bertha; and the gold cup, Voligeur 1, Tim Whiffer 2, after a dead heat.

The grand prize Paris race, value £5000, was won by Mr. Seville's Ranger.

AMERICA.

June 13th.
Affairs are going on more decisively in favour of peace.

Meetings have been held in the Northern States, and resolutions passed condemning the Government for the prosecution of the war, urging peace at any price, and demanding that the wishes of the people shall be respected.

The accounts of last month's proceedings, as reported by the Federal Government, cannot be relied on. The authentic reports say that General Lee's army, numbering 100,000 men, and supported by an immense cavalry force under General Stuart, is on the road towards Winchester and Harper's Ferry, and the greatest alarm prevails at Washington.

The preliminary arrangement for the enforcement of the Conscription Act led to a breach of the peace and then murder. It is thought the Government will not be able to carry out the measure.

The voluntary enlistment of the black population is now the grand idea, as Lincoln and his principal advisers despair of much further white aid for the conquest of the Southern States.
Meanwhile, Lincoln says that as the nation elected him President he will act as such, even if he had to die for it.

Vicksburg has been attacked by the Federals under General Grant, and they were victorious in a series of attacks, but were finally repulsed in their great assault.

Confederate General Pemberton declared that he could hold out until reinforced by Johnston, who it was expected would attack Grant in the rear and cut him up.

Fort Hudson was invested by the Federal army and fleet. After several engagements, the Northerners were repulsed. General Banks lost an arm, and General Sherman died of his wounds.

Commodore Wilkes has been superseded, on the representation of the British Government.

The arrest and condemnation of Mr. Vallandigham, for a speech he made against the war, has caused tremendous sensation in the North.
An application for a writ of habeas corpus was refused, and excited wild indignation. The Democratic party nominated Vallandigham for the governorship of Ohio.

At a monster meeting of 25,000 persons, the military despotism of the North was severely censured, and the people are now crying out for freedom of discussion.

The French Emperor has re-opened negotiations with England on the subject of mediation between the Federals and Confederates, and it is said, should England decline, he will have recourse to Russia and Spain, as it is now thought utterly impossible for the seceding States to return to the Union.

Lord Palmerston is in favour of submitting the American quarrel to the arbitration of the King of the Belgians, provided the contending American factions will agree to this arrangement, and also a suspension of hostilities pending the decision and award of Leopold to be imposed.

The new element of negro soldiers employed by the Federals increases the hate of the Confederates, who give no quarter to the blacks, thereby adding greatly to the horrors of the war.

General Banks reports the conduct of the black troops in the attack on Fort Hudson as most heroic. When ordered to the front to storm the Confederate position, they rushed in a body over the parapet, seized the guns, and reached the interior of the fort. A hand-to-hand conflict here ensued, unprecedented for ferocity. No quarter was given, and out of 800 negroes, who formed the storming party, 600 were killed; the remaining 200 escaped by jumping headlong over the walls of the fort.

The Federal loss in the late Vicksburg fight is given at 40,000.

Commodore Porter has done considerable harm to the Confederates on the Yazoo River, and destroyed a large amount of public and private property.

The report of the evacuation of Fredericksburg by General Lee, and its occupation by General Hooker, is wholly unfounded.

The editors of the New York journals have passed a resolution asserting their right to criticise the acts of the Administration and its subordinates, and denying the right of the military to suppress the papers published far from the seat of war.

The steamer Norwegian, sister ship to the ill-fated Anglo-Saxon, was wrecked off St.
Paul's, on the river St. Lawrence, whilst steaming in a fog. No lives lost.

CANADA.

The Parliamentary elections are creating great excitement. The Government candidates have been mostly defeated.

FRANCE.

The Paris elections have resulted in the entire defeat of the several Government candidates, and a complete change of Ministry has ensued, M. Billault replacing Count Walewski as Minister of State. The following is the new list:—Baroche, Minister of Justice; Boudet, Minister of Interior; Dury, Minister of Education; and Behie, of Commerce, &c. The above Cabinet secures the confidence of the French people, as it is believed to be the first step towards Ministerial responsibility.

The French Government are preparing for war, and it is asserted that France wishes to join with England in creating a free Poland.

The French troops have taken Puebla, Ortega having surrendered with 16,000 men.

BRAZIL.

The King of the Belgians has given his award in the dispute between England and the Brazilis in favour of the latter country.

POLAND.

The Polish question causes great anxiety in England and the Continent. The Poles still fighting victoriously. Russia would consent to an armistice, but the Polish National Government insists on the following three conditions:

—1st. The armistice must extend throughout the whole Kingdom of Poland as it existed previous to the first division in 1772. 2nd. A plenipotentiary on the part of the National Government must be admitted to defend the interests of Poland at the conference. 3rd. National Diet composed of delegates from the Provinces, as well as from the Kingdom of Poland, must meet under a guarantee not merely of Europe, but also of the national army, which occupies all the provinces." Should these conditions not be complied with, "Freedom or death" is to be the watchword. Extensive warlike preparations are being made in Russia.

PRUSSIA.

Affairs in Prussia are getting from bad to worse. The Crown Prince having publicly expressed himself very clearly on late affairs, and regretting the turn they had taken, the King, his father, sent him a sharp letter demanding a retraction; this the Prince refused, and requested that he might be permitted to lay down his dignities and retire with his wife and family where he could not be accused of interfering with affairs of State.

Deputations from all parts of the country are arriving at Berlin in defence of the conduct of the representatives of the people, and urging an abrogation of the recent order gagging the voice of the Prussian Press.

AUSTRIA.

In the Council, nearly all the members in discussing the address to the Emperor, expressed their sympathy for Poland, advocating her complete independence.

GREECE.

Prince William of Denmark has formally accepted the Throne of Greece, under the title of King George I.

The Ionian Islands have been ceded to Greece.

ITALY.

France has made fresh remonstrances at Rome to obtain the withdrawal of Francis II. from that city.

Garibaldi's health is still very weak.

The Italian Chamber of Deputies passed a vote of confidence in the Ministry by 202 votes to 52. Out of the debate a duel arose between M. Ratazzi and M. Manighetti, the Premier.
Ratazzi was wounded.

MEXICO.

The Mexicans are preparing for a desperate defence of Mexico.

INDIA.

Nana Sahib is captured at last, beyond doubt.
He was taken at Ajaniere, in a Hindoo temple, by Major Davidson and three officers.
A wide spread conspiracy is indicated by his papers.

The imposter calling himself Tantia Topsee is at Salanda, with 50,000 Bengal sepoy.

The long protracted siege of Herat is ended, Dost Mohammed's troops having taken the city by storm.

GALLÉ.

14th July.
The French steamer Douai, for Suex, put back disabled, her screw being broken. The Marian, for Melbourne, sailed on the 15th July.

More tonnage in harbour than is required.
CALCUTTA.

5th July.
There have been violent south-west gales in the Bay of Bengal, causing much loss and damage to shipping.
Money plentiful, and in considerable demand.
For seed, tonnage freight £4 2s.; dead weight very scarce.
Indian securities show a decline of one per cent.

JAPAN.

In Japan, matters have assumed a more peaceful aspect, the Tycoon having partially acceded to our demands.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

The system of granting conditional pardons is to be abolished. All convicts to remain in the colony until expiration of their original sentence.

Three English men-of-war are to be converted into transports for conveyance of prisoners to Swan River.

Lamack's exploring party have returned unsuccessful.

MONETARY AND COM- MERCIAL.

London, 26th June, 4 p.m.
Since the advance in the Bank of England rate of discount to four per cent., the money market has been generally firm, with a tendency at one time to increased stringency, but latest advices speak of a reaction, and money easy. Consols for money, 91½ to 91½; ditto, account, July 9th, 91½ to 92. Three months' bills, 4 per cent.; four months', 4½; six months' bank bills, 4½; trade ditto, 5.

COLONIAL GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.— New South Wales' five per cent., 1866, 102½ to 103½; Victorian six per cent., April-October, 110 to 112; South Australian Bank, dividend for year declared, 10 per cent. free of income-tax. London Chartered Bank for half-year, 4 per cent. South Australian Company for half year, 5 per cent., and building eight new steamers.

The annual meeting of the proprietors of the Union Bank of Australia is convened for 6th July.

£200,000 is subscribed by the Atlantic Telegraph Company for a fresh attempt to connect the two hemispheres.

The Board of Trade returns for April show an increase of more than 20 per cent. upon the exports as compared with the corresponding month of last year.

Exports to Melbourne for the past month show an increase of £70,700 over the previous month. The principal advance is in drapery, hardware, oils, woolpacks, tobacco, rum, malt and hops declined. Brandy, wines, beer, provisions, and candles, about the same as last month.

To Sydney and Moreton Bay, the exports show an increase of £73,168 over previous month. Moderate advance in drapery goods, tobacco, brandy and beer; oils, rum, and hardware in average supply.

To Adelaide and New Zealand, the month's exports show a large decrease.

LONDON WOOL REPORT.

Sales opened on 30th April, and closed on 3rd June. Total sales catalogued, 928,112.
A decline of one penny to three half-pence was established at the opening sales, but was soon recovered, and sales continued to the end at advanced prices. Foreign buyers took the lead throughout. Had they only made their usual purchases, and competition been left to the home trade, a serious decline in price would have been the result. It is anticipated good prices will be realised at the July sales; but it is thought that buyers of wool in Australia pay absurd prices, leaving no margin for risk or profits. Next sales commence on 16th July.

PRODUCE MARKET.

HIDES.—Several parcels of best kinds of Australian ox and cow sold at higher prices.
Best heavy, lower; active demand.

LEATHER.—Prices remain without change.
Good business done.

BARK.—Steady prices; little doing.

WHALEBONE.—Bone, ex Star of Peace, sold varying from £38 6s. to £46.

TALLOW.—Australian declined 1s. per cwt.
Limited business done.

METALS.—Copper sells readily. Price of

INTERCOLONIAL RIFLE MATCH.

On Saturday afternoon last, the third special practice of Volunteers for the selection of ten men to represent the colony in the approaching annual rifle contest with Victorians took place at the Volunteer rifle range.
The weather was delightfully fine, and, as a consequence, the shooting was exceedingly good.
Several of the scores made in the second practice on Thursday last were not reached on Saturday; but the average of the first ten was slightly in advance of that made by the first ten on Thursday; in the one case it was ninety-four and two-thirds, and in the other ninety-five. The number of competitors on Saturday was eighteen, and included one who had not shot in either of the previous practices; we allude to Mr.
Wyndham, of West Maitland, who made the very good score of 97 marks.

Mr. Hordern made the top score on Saturday, with 101 marks; Mr. Brownlow being second, with 99, and Sergeant Strong third, with 98.

The committee of the Rifle Association was represented by Captain Harbottle, who acted as umpire; while the arrangements were, as usual, under the superintendence of Sergeant Major Jones.

The names of the competitors, and score made by each are appended:—

A PHASE OF WOMAN'S WORK.

There is one work which women do for all but exceptional men which is apt to be undervalued in after life. Of the mother's work, and the wife's work, either from natural affection or conventional acquiescence, we speak reverently and gratefully, but the link which joined the two, and without which the mother's work would have been in a certain degree sterile, and the wife's could hardly have been wrought, we pass over with a notice which is half contemptuous, though seldom unkind.

Now, without exaggerating too serious a cast of countenance, rather inviting a smile, and not forbidding even a dash of banter, we would bid you just think what you owe to your first love. A good many very pleasurable hours, you will say, and perhaps as many which at the time seemed very weary; but the inspiration of a few rhymes which you would now think very silly if you had not long since forgotten all about them; the expenditure of a vast amount of precious time upon a personal appearance which you have now
which at the time seemed very weary; but the inspira-
them; the expenditure of a vast amount of precious
time upon a personal appearance which you have now little else. Yes, dear sir, if you be human, very little else. Of course, we are assuming that you did not marry your first love; if you did that, you are an exceptional case, and, not improbably, a disappointed man, with whom we have nothing more to do. To another we say: To her you owe a very essential part of your education and development. Who was it that told you of the horrible perils of hobbeyhood, and all your schoolboy notions of gentlemanly bearing and honourable feeling? Who developed those delicate perceptions of fitness, those little niceties of appreciation, which, as a gentleman, you must not for the world be without? Assuredly, your mother laid the foundation of them, and let us hope that your wife reaps the fruits of them; but your first love was the sun that expanded and gave them an impulse.

These rhymes you used to write were very absurd, unlike the purpose which they fulfilled; they had no pretensions to be poetry, except as between you and her; but such with equal singleness of motive—have you not felt devotion as real and as disinterested before or since? Postage you have—but has it been quite as fresh and unspoiled? It may have been more vigorous and mature, it may have been quite worthy, but has it been the whole quite as beautiful?

This, however, has all passed away—not so its mark upon the character. You must be the
